

Check the fitness of your finances

Look in the mail soon for your home mailer from Union Benefits Trust for information on receiving help with financial issues such as managing financial stress and budgeting for you and your family.

This benefit brought to you by the Union Benefits Trust allows FOP members to speak with a certified financial planner for 30 to 60 minutes at no cost. This service, like other services offered by Working Solutions, is free and strictly confidential.

In today's tough economic times, your union knows the value of having sound, economic practices and being able to make informed decisions about IRAs, bonds and more. Watch for the upcoming mailing: send in the attached postage paid card, call for a consultation or visit Working Solutions online, to take advantage of this helpful service.

Working Solutions is an information and referral service that is available to do the leg work for members for a number of needs, ranging from helping you find a pet sitter to a roofer, to getting your information on help for your child with ADHD or an elderly parent who may need special care. Working Solutions can give you the information you need to make important decisions for you and your loved ones, and has helped FOP members since 1998.

Master-degree counselors are trained in specific subject matter to ensure FOP members get the help they need for anything that might affect their ability to perform at their jobs.

Call Working Solutions today to set up your free financial consultation now, at 1-800-358-8515. A wide range of online services are available to you as well, link through the Trust's website, www.benefitstrust.org.
